Description	Coooo Spaces Louver Wall introduces a sense of movement to the Coooo Spaces collection. With angled PET blades mounted on a proprietary aluminium frame, the Louver Wall offers visual division without full enclosure —allowing light and air to pass through while still shaping space with intention. Ideal for zones that call for partial privacy and softened boundaries, the Louver Wall is perfect for delineating areas without feeling heavy or closed-off. Whether used as a freestanding screen or integrated into larger Coooo configurations, it brings sculptural form and architectural depth to any layout. Crafted with the same lightweight core and powder-coated proprietary aluminium extrusion as the rest of the ‘Coooo Spaces’ family, the Louver Wall ensures consistency in material and finish. The angled PET blades are available in your choice of colors, offering both textural warmth and sound absorption. It’s available in full-height only. Gangable feet and a range of powder coat finishes allow for seamless coordination across the system—creating a space that’s adaptable, expressive, and intuitively functional.
